

Fort Edwards Junior Docent Program Application

The Fort Edwards Foundation is actively recruiting young people, ages 11-18, to participate in the Junior Docent Program at the Fort Edwards Visitors Center. The program will run on weekends during the summer and early fall. Junior Docents will assist in interpreting and explaining the history of the fort and the surrounding area during the French and Indian War era. Please fill out this application and return it to the Fort Edwards Visitors Center by June 27, 2015.
